

Attention Hunters!

This area has been closed to the discharge of firearms and the use of bow and arrow, in accordance with Boulder County Resolutions No. 80-52, No. 2015-44 and Colorado Revised Statutes 30-15-302. The area that has been closed to the discharge of firearms/arrows includes the Mountain Pines, Mountain Meadows, Pride of the West, and Sugarloaf Acres subdivisions and includes National Forest Service land within the resolution area. Unless you have permission from a private property owner to discharge a firearm/arrow on their land, you cannot legally discharge a firearm/arrow in this area.

A map of the closure area is available on the Boulder Sheriff's Office website.
www.BoulderCountySheriff.org

The Boulder County Sheriff's Office, U.S. Forest Service and the Colorado Division of Parks and Wildlife will be patrolling the area, and will investigate any reported violations. These include, but are not limited to, the following County, State and Federal violations:

Discharging a firearm on public or private land in this area.

The reckless discharge of a firearm or other deadly weapon.

(On public lands outside the closure area), discharging a firearm or other implement capable of taking human life, causing injury, or damaging property within 150 yards of a residence, building, campsite, developed recreation area or occupied area.

Trespassing

Please help us by hunting responsibly, obeying any applicable law, rule or regulation and understanding the impact you have on the people who live here.

If you have any questions you may contact the Boulder County Sheriff's Office at 303-441-4444.