

Official Notice of Coordinated Election: Boulder County, Colorado

Election Day – Tuesday, November 3, 2015

Voting begins October 13

COORDINATED ELECTION INFORMATION

Elections in Colorado are conducted by mail ballot with Voter Service and Polling Centers available for those who would like additional assistance or prefer to vote in person. All active registered voters will be automatically mailed a ballot the week of October 12 to the address listed on their voter registration.

Once you receive your ballot in the mail, you may vote it. Ballots must be returned to the Clerk and Recorder no later than 7 p.m. on Election Day (Tuesday, November 3) in order for your votes to be counted. Voters can return their ballot by mail or by dropping it off at any designated ballot drop-off location or Voter Service and Polling Center. Ballots received after 7 p.m. on Election Day will not be counted. Postmarks do not count as a received date.

After returning a ballot, voters can verify that their ballot was received by visiting www.BoulderCountyVotes.org.

If you need to register or update your voter registration, please do so at GoVoteColorado.com. The Boulder County Clerk and Recorder recommends all voters review their information to ensure the mailing address is correct.

If you make a mistake, damage or lose your ballot, you may request a replacement ballot by emailing Vote@BoulderCountyVotes.org, calling 303-413-7740, or by visiting a Voter Service and Polling Center.
