

2016 Primary - Daily Mail Ballot Return Information

The ballots received and processed chart displays mail ballot returns throughout the election cycle, beginning approximately two weeks before Election Day.

If a date is not listed, either no ballot processing took place that day or no significant ballot processing took place that day.

Numbers may differ from final election results due to 8-day final processing of military/overseas ballots and ballot resolution.