

About Boulder County Local Coordinating Council

Local Coordinating Councils (LCCs) work collaboratively to learn, identify and address the transportation needs within their counties. In most instances LCCs focus on transportation for persons with disabilities, older adults, individuals with low-income, and others who do not have access to a personal vehicle.

The Boulder County LCC was established in 2012. The LCC is an alliance of community organizations, individuals and interest groups working together to achieve common goals regarding human service transportation. The purpose of the LCC is to promote and develop efficient, accessible, seamless, equitable, responsive and easy to arrange transportation options for Boulder County.

LCC members include:

- Transportation providers
- Human Service agencies
- Housing agencies
- Veterans representatives
- Disability advocates and service organizations
- Older adult advocates and service organizations
- Users of the transportation system
- Local transportation planning department
- Public health department
- Vocational rehabilitation agencies
- Other interested individuals and organizations

For information about LCC meetings, to learn how you can become a member, or to order additional copies of this brochure contact Boulder County's Mobility for All program office at (720) 564-2218.

About this Guide

The Boulder Local Coordinating Council (LCC), in partnership with Via Mobility Services, the Denver Regional Mobility & Access Council (DRMAC) and Boulder County Aging and Disability Resources for Colorado (ADRC) is working to support your efforts in helping consumers meet their transportation needs. This Guide was created to help Boulder County human service agency staff who work with older adults and people with disabilities locate transportation information and services for their clients.
