

Lafayette, name that Neighborhood!

Boulder County Housing Authority (BCHA) needs your help naming a new workforce housing community at the intersection of Emma and 120th Streets in East Lafayette.

BCHA and the Lafayette community are engaged in a community design process and now it's time to design a name for this neighborhood! Examples of other community names that capture a unique sense of place include: Tungsten Village (in Nederland, after a rich mining history), Kestrel (in Louisville, after a native falcon) and Aspinwall (in Lafayette, after a leader in miners' rights who was from the Lafayette area).

STEP 1: Submit Ideas

Come up with a name that celebrates what is unique about this area of Lafayette and enter it to win! Submit ideas online at www.LafayetteHousing.org by Thursday, November 1st, 2018.

STEP 2: Speak Up

The three finalists will be announced. Vote for your favorite name online at www.LafayetteHousing.org. The winning name will be announced on Thursday, November 15th, 2018.

STEP 3: Win Prizes

Three Finalists | Each win a gift card grab bag from Lafayette local businesses (retail value of $100.00)
One Grand Prize | One person will win a gift card grab bag from Lafayette businesses (retail value of $250.00)

STEP 4: Celebrate

You did it! Lafayette is your home and you helped make this new community part of it. Thanks for being good neighbors!
