

Reshaping Prosecution Project Community Data Presentation:

The Vera Institute of Justice & the Boulder County District Attorney's Office

with Special Appearances by Motus Theater & Spirit of Grace

Thursday, July 7, 2022 | 6PM – 8 PM MDT | Zoom | Register here: bit.ly/3zZmIB7

Join us for a virtual community presentation on the Vera Institute of Justice's Reshaping Prosecution Project and its partnership with the Boulder County District Attorney's Office (20th Judicial District of Colorado). You will hear from District Attorney Michael Dougherty and the Vera Institute of Justice's Reshaping Prosecution team on the importance of data-informed policies as well as next steps. Vera will present an analysis of racial and other disparities from the Boulder County DA's Office's 2013-2019 data.

Additionally, the presentation will explore:

- Why racial disparities continue to be seen in the criminal legal system, including historical, national, and local context.
- The power and responsibility prosecutors hold and the Boulder County DA's Office's work to identify, understand, and address racial and other disparities.
- Examples of reforms implemented in other prosecutors' offices, reform steps already taken by the Boulder District Attorney's Office, and next steps.

With a special appearance from Motus Theatre's Juaquin Mobley and his powerful monologue JustUs: "Unhireable" and a performance by Denver's Spirit of Grace gospel singers.

MOTUS THEATER
Moving Stories that Move Us Forward