The Boulder District Attorney’s Office is offering a VIRTUAL 4-hr Restorative Justice (RJ) Volunteer Community Member Training. In this training, you will learn:

- RJ philosophy and principles
- Active listening skills
- How to help those who committed crimes understand the impact of their actions on the greater community.
- How the Boulder DA’s Office is using RJ practices to support responsibility, repair of harm, and restoration for all involved.

Please note - this training is a pre-requisite for our 20-hr RJ Volunteer Facilitator Training, which will take place in early 2023.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS!

October 6, 2022
1-5 p.m.
Online.

Register online before 9/30 by clicking HERE.

Sliding Scale Training Fee
$0-$60

You must take this training if you want to take our RJ Facilitator Training in 2023.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Kelly Taylor Russell
ktaylorrussell@bouldercounty.org
303-441-3841 (voice)/
720-204-8041 (text)

We are especially seeking volunteers who are bilingual, people of color, young people, and men. All are welcome to apply!