Payment options for remittance of insurance proceeds related to the Marshall Fire Private Property Debris Removal Program (PPDR)

In accordance with Disaster Declaration 4634-DR-CO, Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) funds have been allocated to Boulder County for the reimbursement of costs associated with Boulder County's Private Property Debris Removal (PPDR) program. Boulder County has been directed by FEMA to collect policy coverage information and claim settlement documentation pertaining to the debris removal benefit coverage for the homeowners' claims. Many homeowner policies include a debris removal benefit, and to ensure Boulder County maintains compliance with Federal Law (42 U.S.C. § 5155 and 44 CFR § 204.62), the policies are undergoing an insurance reconciliation analysis to determine the insurance proceeds.

Insurance proceeds may be remitted to the county as follows:
