Boulder County Pathways to Housing Stability Application Fees Evaluation Report

Introduction

The Boulder County Pathways to Housing Stability (BCPHS) initiative, funded by a 5-year SAMHSA-TIEH grant, supports adults experiencing chronic homelessness who also have behavioral health needs in finding and maintaining stable housing. Integrating behavioral health treatment and recovery support services with housing navigation, the goal is to help clients move quickly into housing with access to evidence-based programs and services. In order to place individuals in stable housing, program staff and participants must engage with local landlords and property managers to apply for housing. Because each property handles applications processes differently and because the BCPHS case managers only work with a subset of the BCPHS client group, a review of application fees data will give a better idea of the way that the application process works across properties and will allow program staff to make more informed decisions about funds that are used for applications and other associated fees. This report includes information on applications for housing, the program funding used for those applications, and the results of each submitted application.

The data were collected by BCPHS case managers between April and December of 2022. OMNI worked with Mental Health Partners (MHP) staff to access the de-identified datasets. The data were collected in two separate Excel workbooks the first containing client IDs, client admission dates, property names, application dates, results, grant funds allocated, and additional notes. The second workbook contained the same information as the first workbook in addition to the client's request date, holding fees, administration fees, application fees, total amount of funding requested, purchasing card usage, Boulder County Community Services' approval date, and grant billing information. OMNI merged the datasets together to analyze the application and result date, results of the application, properties applied to, holding fees, administration fees, application fees, total requested, and grant funds allocated to better understand the way that program funds were used. Because these data were collected during an 8-month period they provide a snapshot of the application process and may not fully represent the process throughout the duration of the program. The data were cleaned and analyzed in Excel and SPSS.

Properties

BCPHS clients applied to 55 properties in the 8 months of data collection. Over half (60%) of the properties had only one application submitted. The remaining properties (40%) received 2 or more applications per BCPHS client (n=55), meaning most applications are going to properties that are likely unfamiliar with the BCPHS program and therefore may not be aware of the supportive services that clients are offered as part of their participation.

Application Results

Overall, while 34% of BCPHS clients were denied by the property they applied to, over a quarter (26%) had their applications approved. 12% of applications did not have a result provided in the data, and 11% fell under “Other” due to a variety of reasons where no clear result was indicated. (n=139)

Property Responses

Properties that had only 1 application from the BCPHS program and with 2+ applications had similar numbers of approved and denied applications. Additionally, out of 55 properties where clients submitted applications, 27 properties denied BCPHS clients’ applications (see Appendix A).

Properties that received 1 application were more likely to have no results, which indicates that properties that have more applicants from the BCPHS program may be more likely to respond to submitted applications (n=139).

■ Properties with 1 application ■ Properties with 2+ applications

Time to Receive Results

The number of days it took from the submission of the application to the time of the result ranged between 0 to 85 days. On average, clients heard back in 17 days. 40% of applications heard back with 2 weeks. 20% heard back within 1 month. Interestingly, all clients who heard back in 60+ days had approved applications. (n=75)

Fees

50 BCPHS clients applied for housing between April and December of 2022. The number of applications submitted per client ranged from 1 to 11 applications. On average, clients submitted 3 applications. Over half of the clients submitted 2+ applications.

BCPHS case managers kept track of the administration fees, holding fees, application fees, total requested, and grant funds allocated. Administration fees had the highest average ($153.75) while the application fees had the lowest average ($35.08).
