

Official Notice of the Primary Election Boulder County, Colorado

Election Day – Tuesday, March 5, 2024
Ballots mailed beginning February 12, 2024

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY ELECTION INFORMATION

Elections in Colorado are conducted by mail ballot with Vote Centers (formally referred to as Voter Service and Polling Centers or VSPCs) available for those who would like additional assistance or prefer to vote in person. See below for a list of locations and hours/days of operation.

Ballots will be mailed beginning the week of February 12. Presidential primaries in Colorado are only held by the Democratic and Republican Parties. You must be registered as a Democrat, Republican, or Unaffiliated voter to participate. To register, update, or check your voter registration, visit www.GoVoteColorado.gov.

Party affiliated voters: All active, eligible voters who are members of the Democratic or Republican parties will be mailed their respective party's ballot. The deadline to change or withdraw party affiliation is Monday, February 12 – visit www.GoVoteColorado.gov to update your registration.

Unaffiliated voters: By law, unaffiliated voters will be mailed a ballot packet containing both a Democratic and Republican Party ballot, but the voter can only vote and return one. If both ballots are voted and returned, neither ballot will be counted.

Voters have three options for returning their ballot: mail, 24-hour drop box, or Vote Center. Ballots must be returned by 7 p.m. on Election Day (Tuesday, March 5). Ballots received after 7 p.m. on Election Day will not be counted. Postmarks do not count. If mailing your ballot, it is recommended to mail it no later than Monday, February 26 (earlier is better).

Voters can sign-up to receive text, email, or voice messages when their ballot is printed, mailed, and received by Boulder County Elections by enrolling in BallotTrax on our website: www.BoulderCountyVotes.gov. This is a free service.

There is no voter registration deadline in Colorado but for primary elections, as noted above, there is a party affiliation deadline for existing registrants. If eligible and a new voter in Colorado, you can register and vote up to and including Election Day. However, if you would like to receive a ballot in the mail, the last day to register or change your registration mailing address is Monday, February 26. After this date, if eligible, you can still register, including online, but you must visit a Vote Center in person to request a ballot or use our Ballot-to-Go service.

If you make a mistake, damage, or lose your ballot, you may request a replacement ballot by emailing Vote@BoulderCounty.gov, by calling 303-413-7740, by visiting a Vote Center, or by using our Ballot-to-Go service.

Vote Centers (Voter Service and Polling Centers) – Services include:

- Vote in person
- Register to vote or update your registration information
- Request a ballot in Spanish
- Vote using equipment and facilities for persons with disabilities
- Request a replacement ballot
- Fix a signature discrepancy or missing signature issue
