

RJ COMMUNITY MEMBER TRAINING

The Boulder District Attorney's Office is offering a VIRTUAL 4-hr Restorative Justice (RJ) Volunteer Community Member Training. In this training, you will learn:

- RJ philosophy and principles
- Active listening skills
- How to help those who committed crimes understand the impact of their actions on the greater community
- How the Boulder DA's Office is using RJ practices to support responsibility, repair of harm, and restoration for all involved.

Please note - this training is a pre-requisite for our 20-hr RJ Volunteer Facilitator Training, which will take place in Fall 2024.

We are especially seeking volunteers who are bilingual, people of color, young people, and men. All are welcome to attend!

April 24, 2024
12 p.m. – 4 p.m.
Online

RJ Training Opportunity

Sliding Scale Fee
$0-$60

Register by 4/17:

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact: Denise Lord
dlord@bouldercounty.gov
303-441-3846 (voice)
720-218-4166 (text)

