

Restorative Justice Volunteers Needed

The Boulder County Sheriff's Office is looking for volunteer Restorative Justice Facilitators who help victims, offenders, and the community come together to find solutions and heal.

Apply by:

March 21, 2024

Volunteers Needed: We are looking for volunteers to help facilitate the restorative justice process with juveniles and adults to repair harm in our community.

No Experience Needed: Don't worry if you've never done anything like this before. We'll provide the training you need to succeed.

Time Commitment: Required training sessions held on May 4, 11, 17, and 18, from 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m. The other volunteer times are flexible.

How to Apply: Ready to get started? Fill out an application by March 21, 2024.
