

COME LIVE AT CASA DE LA ESPERANZA

1520 South Emery St., Longmont, CO 80501

For more than 30 years, Casa de la Esperanza has been a home for agricultural workers and their families. While agricultural families will continue to be given housing preference, Casa de la Esperanza is now offering vacant units to all qualifying low-income households.

ELIGIBILITY

- The head of household must be a U.S. citizen or a qualified alien.
- Household income must not exceed 80% of the Area Median Income (AMI)—visit our website for more information.
- The size of the household must match the size of the unit:
  - » Three-bedroom homes can house three to seven people.
  - » Four-bedroom homes can house four to nine people.

The Boulder County Housing Authority (BCHA) offers a variety of programs at Casa de la Esperanza to help residents learn new skills, get the help they need, and build a strong community.

BENEFITS

- Personalized support for residents
- Services to help older adults stay in their homes
- After-school and summer programming for kids
- Community parties and potlucks
- Fitness classes
- Resident meetings to share ideas and connect
- Connections to resources for health and wellness, job skills, and managing money

APPLY TODAY!

CONTACT US

For assistance with your application or additional questions please contact:

Lizbeth Campuzano
303-548-6422
lcampuzano@bouldercounty.gov

boco.org/Casa

Housing

Boulder County, in accordance with the Fair Housing Act, prohibits discrimination in its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, sexual orientation, disability, familial status or national origin. A reasonable accommodation may be requested to ensure equal access by people with disabilities to its programs and activities. To request an accommodation, please call 720-564-2267.