

Student Voter Registration Awareness Week Sample Announcements

Below are sample PA loud system / video announcement scripts for your students to use during the week celebration for Student Voter Registration Awareness week. Feel free to edit or add to this content. This is just meant as a guide!

MONDAY: This week is Student Voter Registration Awareness Week! Get registered today by going to GoVoteColorado.gov or find [add High School Liaison name], our school's voter registration liaison, to get a paper registration form.

TUESDAY: Student Voter Registration week continues! Be on the lookout for opportunities to register to vote at school (add details), as well as other voting information in your classes, on the Boulder County Elections page on Instagram, and on BoCo Clerk on Twitter. If you've got an opinion on our country's future, register to vote at GoVoteColorado.gov to make sure your voice is heard!

WEDNESDAY: We are halfway through Student Voter Registration Awareness Week! Any student that is ages 15 or older can pre-register / pre-register to vote. If you've got a license, permit, or state ID, hop online to register at GoVoteColorado.gov or find [add High School Liaison name], our school's voter registration liaison, to get a paper registration form.

THURSDAY: Make sure you're ready to have your voice heard – register to vote TODAY as part of Student Voter Registration Week! Anyone ages 15 and older can register / pre-register. Find [HS Liaison Name] and ask how!

FRIDAY: Today is the last day of High School Voter Registration Awareness Week! There is no deadline to register to vote, but why wait? See [Liaison's name] – our school's voter registration liaison – today or visit GoVoteColorado.gov. Don't forget: Voting is your Superpower!
